

Anonymized Information

When creating anonymized information, the Company will take the necessary measures to ensure that specific individuals cannot be identified and that the personal information used to create the information cannot be recovered.

In addition, when using anonymized information ourselves, the Company will not collate such information with other information for the purpose of identifying (re-identifying) the individual that the original personal information relates to.

When creating anonymized information, Kanematsu will disclose what items related to individuals are contained in the anonymized information in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations.

When providing anonymized information to a third party, the Company will, as required by the relevant laws and regulations, publicly disclose the method of provision to the third party and what items of information relating to individuals are contained in the anonymized information to be provided, as well as clearly indicating to the third party that the information is anonymized information.