

Pseudonymized Information

When creating pseudonymized information, the Company will comply with the relevant laws and regulations and create the information in such a way that specific individuals cannot be identified unless it is collated with other information.

When creating pseudonymized information, the Company will take the necessary security management measures to prevent any leaks of information that has been deleted, etc., from arising.

In addition, the pseudonymized information will not be cross-referenced with other information for the purpose of identifying the individual concerned.

When creating pseudonymized information, the Company will publicly disclose what items of information relating to individuals are contained in the pseudonymized information as required by the relevant laws and regulations.

No pseudonymized information created by the Company will be provided to third parties, except as provided for by law.
